Fraternities
Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council, consisting of two members, one senior and one junior, from each fraternity, provides a connecting link for the men’s Greek letter societies. The respective fraternities choose representatives to the council, and these representatives elect a president and a secretary-treasurer.

The primary purpose of the council is to regulate rushing. It makes rules to govern this activity, punishes any infraction of these rules, and decides any disputes which may arise.

The same rushing rules, with two minor amendments, were in effect this year as in the past two years. The basic features of the present system are that rushing shall be deferred for a given period after the opening of the fall term, that an informal visiting period shall precede the week of intensive rushing, and that each fraternity and each member of the freshman class shall be provided with a copy of rushing rules.

The Kaleidoscope 1935
Pan-Hellenic Association

The Pan-Hellenic Association is composed of a senior and a junior delegate from each sorority, the officers receiving their positions by rotation. Last year the membership was extended to include one alumna representative from each organization.

The main purpose of the council is to maintain a friendly spirit between the six sororities on the campus, and to determine rushing rules. Furthermore, the group promotes a high social and scholastic standard, and regulates all matters of importance in inter-sorority relationships.

Tau Kappa Alpha

Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating fraternity—was founded at Annapolis in 1908. The Middlebury chapter was formed in 1920; in 1921 women became eligible for membership.

The purpose of the fraternity is to encourage debating and public speaking. To be a member, one must have participated in an intercollegiate debate or oratorical contest. Members receive visiting debaters and take charge, in general, of debates held in Middlebury.

Exhibition debates are frequently given by Tau Kappa Alpha in various Vermont towns. Members of the fraternity, proven debaters, are often in demand to act as judges in interscholastic debates.

The Middlebury chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa, national educational fraternity founded in Dartmouth in 1921, was established in 1925 and was the twelfth to be chartered in America.

The object of this organization is to stimulate interest among college students in educational work and to promote the general advancement of the teaching profession. Membership is open to undergraduate men who have taken at least two courses in the education department. Speeches by faculty members and discussions of educational problems are featured at the meetings.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic fraternity, was installed at Middlebury in 1930, replacing the local society, Phi Pi Epsilon. Membership is composed of those men who have been editor-in-chief or business manager of a college publication, or who have served two years on The Campus board.

This year the society sponsored the movement which placed the Kaleidoscope fee on the term bill. It also furthered the organization of the Kaleidoscope by providing a constitution for the newly-created permanent board.

The Kaleidoscope, until this year sponsored by the Junior Class, has become in fact what it has always been in spirit, the college annual. Since it is now the product of the entire student body, the board will, in the future, be composed of members from both the Sophomore and Junior classes.

The publication of the 1935 KALEIDOSCOPE marks an era in the history of the annual. Three years ago a system, intended to improve the quality of the book by extending the period of training into the Sophomore year, was inaugurated. In the present edition the plan has been enlarged in scope to include freshmen as well as sophomores, thus providing for editors with adequate experience to plan and execute the publication of the book, with less danger of error.

From among the freshman and sophomore tryouts a board for the following year will be chosen. An editor-in-chief, associate editor, managing editor, two photography editors, an art editor, business manager, associate business manager and advertising manager are to be picked from among the sophomore tryouts; eight assistant editors and six assistant business managers will be elected from the freshman class. This plan of organization, patterned after The Campus board, was drawn up by the president of Pi Delta Epsilon, working with the heads of both the 1934 and 1935 editions of the KALEIDOSCOPE. The present board hopes that it has taken a step toward greater service to the college as a whole, while continuing to feature the Junior class.

Each year, for many years, the Junior class, in publishing successive editions of the KALEIDOSCOPE, has attempted to present a book more distinguished in comprehensiveness and quality than any previous volume. The editors of the thirty-ninth edition hope that they have continued the trend toward more vivid and more accurate presentation of events and organizations at Middlebury. With this goal in view, several changes of emphasis and arrangement have been introduced. Probably the most important of these is the additional space allotted to the faculty section, allowing the use of individual cuts, and the inclusion of more detailed information concerning each member of the faculty.

The change from a publication of the Junior class to a college yearbook has also removed the difficulty of inadequate financial backing that has handicapped the KALEIDOSCOPE in the past. A heavy burden of expense has been lifted from the Junior class by including the fee for the annual on the term bill. This places the KALEIDOSCOPE on an equal financial footing with the other college publications, and should prove a great aid in the progressive advance of later volumes.

The Campus, official undergraduate newspaper of Middlebury College, was first published October 28, 1830, as the Undergraduate. This quarterly pamphlet contained literary articles and news of current happenings of interest to the outside world but entirely excluded items pertaining to the college. Publication ceased in 1831 and was not resumed for forty-five years. In 1876 the Undergraduate again appeared under the editorship of William W. Gay, '76. It continued in the form of a periodical with the subject matter of much the same content as that of the earlier paper. Publication was again discontinued in 1899.

The magazine under the new name of Middlebury Campus came out again six years later. It was produced under the guidance of Prof. Charles B. Wright and for the first time the contents related chiefly to college news. In 1913 the magazine was altered and a four column, four page newspaper was published bi-weekly. Another column was added in 1922 and the paper began to appear weekly. With the addition of an insert in 1927 the paper assumed its present size.

A board divided into editorial and business staffs is responsible for the publication of the Campus. Competition for positions on the board begins during the freshman year. Tryouts are given knowledge and experience in the various phases of newspaper work in a two year period of training and apprenticeship. Board elections are held in March. Members of the sophomore class are elected to the assistant positions, with the departmental heads coming from the junior class.

Activities and events of student interest are published in the news columns of the Campus. The regular feature columns contain anecdotes of the history and traditions of Middlebury and current campus chatter. Space is reserved for communications from readers, literary criticism, alumni notes, reviews covering other student publications, presentations of the dramatic department, musical programs, and lectures.

The Campus, through its editorial column, seeks to stimulate thought and discussion on campus affairs. Its aim is to be of service to Middlebury by influencing the formulation of undergraduate opinion. During the past year the editorial program has included only subjects which directly concern the college. Important activities have been reviewed and praise and criticism have been given. Editorial policy has been concerned chiefly with two campaigns.

The first proposal was intended to remedy the distorted condition which makes possible the gross inequality in the number and importance of extra-curricular activities participated in by various students. A system was advocated in which all candidates for graduation would be required to participate in some outside activities. Efforts and attainments would be graded on a point scale and both minimum and maximum limits set up.

The institution of a general election day to be held after junior week each year, to ballot for all offices on the Campus at the same time was suggested. This would eliminate many of the difficulties which now attend the elections to several undergraduate offices.

The Saxonian

The Saxonian, literary magazine of the college, is published six times a year under the direction of an editorial and business staff, elected annually. A faculty member advises and assists the members of the staff.

The editors choose for publication voluntary contributions from the student body. These contributions consist of short stories, essays, poems, and literary criticism. As an added incentive to students, the staff offers prizes for the three best essays, poems, and short stories submitted in competition. The prize winning manuscripts are decided upon by a committee chosen from the faculty.

Election to the editorial staff is based upon literary ability previously shown in articles printed in the Saxonian. The business staff is chosen from a group of try-outs, who, to be eligible for election, must have completed a certain amount of work.

The Saxonian was founded in 1921, under the auspices of the English club. It was named after John Godfrey Saxe, '39.

The Handbook

The Middlebury College Handbook, better known as the "Freshman Bible," is published annually by Pi Delta Epsilon in cooperation with the Student Government Association. It is published chiefly as a manual of instruction for the entering class for the purpose of acquainting it with the college life and customs. It states the history and traditions of the college fraternity rushing rules, freshman rules, constitutions of the Undergraduate Association, the Student Government Association, and the Athletic Council, statistics on the fraternal organizations and extra-curricular activities, the college songs and cheers, and the personnel and offices of the faculty. The publication of this manual is made possible by contributions from the Undergraduate Association, the Student Government Association, and the Women's Athletic Association, together with the income from advertisements by various local merchants.

The Undergraduate Association

The Undergraduate Association is the legislative body composed of all undergraduates in the Men's College. It acts through an executive body, the Student Council.

The primary purpose of the body is to further those phases of college custom and activity which are deemed most beneficial to a vigorous undergraduate life. In order that this purpose may be more fully realized, the Undergraduate Association has control of all Undergraduate organizations, and new groups must meet with its approval.

The president is chosen from among nominees chosen by a committee made up of a senior from each fraternity and one from the neutral body. The other officers are elected by the Student Council from its own number. Meetings may be called at the discretion of the president, the Student Council, or by a petition of two fifths of the members.

Student Life Committee

The Student Life Committee reflects the viewpoint of both students and faculty in regard to college social functions. The membership is comprised of the president of the Undergraduate Association, the president of the Student Government Association, the dean of the men's college, the dean of the women's college, and a faculty member designated by the president.

The purpose of the group is to issue regulations governing college dances, entertainments, and all other gatherings of a social nature and to sanction all contemplated social functions.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association of the Women's College at Middlebury is a self-governing body, composed of all the members of the college. While the legislative power is vested in the organization as a whole, executive and judicial authority rests with the officers; president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, and an executive board. Members of this council consist of the officers, one representative from each class, and two representatives for the house chairmen.

The purpose of the organization is to encourage self-control, responsibility, and loyalty in the student body, as well as to create a feeling of unity and a means of making social adjustments. It provides a medium between the administration and the members of the Women's College.

The Student Council

The executive power of the Undergraduate Association is vested in the Student Council, which must always record the will of the Undergraduate Association. This council has supervision over activities of the student body, including their policies, formation, and establishment, in so far as this supervision does not conflict with regulations of the College, or of the Student Government Association of the Women's College.

The Council also has discretionary regulation of the behavior of individuals in the Men's College. Its jurisdiction, however, ends here for it has no authority for enforcement of its decisions; it merely brings them to the attention of the College authorities who act as they see fit. In this capacity the Student Council acts only as an advisory body.

The membership of the Student Council is limited to the men filling the following positions: President of the Undergraduate Association, who is ex-officio chairman; the President of each class, of Blue Key, of Waubanakee, of the "M" Club; and a representative from Pi Delta Epsilon. Meetings are held at the discretion of the chairman.

Waubanakee

Waubanakee is a self-perpetuating honorary Senior society founded in 1911. Membership in this society is the highest honor that is bestowed for marked ability, leadership, and service in extra-curricular activities. Only the most outstanding men of the senior class are elected to membership.

Election to Waubanakee comes in the latter part of the junior year. The ceremony of pledging, or tapping new members, which is of particular interest to the entire college, comes at the beginning of Junior Week.

The insignia of this group is a small gold pin in the form of a tomahawk. The members wear a black felt hat with this design in red embroidered on the front.

Mortar Board

The Banshee chapter of Mortar Board was installed at Middlebury in 1928 to replace a local society established here in 1912. Membership is limited to twelve of Middlebury’s most representative senior women who are chosen with regard to their service, scholarship, and leadership.

Mortar Board plays an important part in campus life, sponsoring a Play Day for freshmen in the fall, and a similar event for seniors in the spring. In addition to these activities, Mortar Board arranges for speakers and for exhibits of artistic work.

Blue Key

Blue Key, self-perpetuating honorary society, was founded at Middlebury in the spring of 1930, replacing the previous junior and sophomore honorary organizations, Sage and Delta Tau. Members are tapped from the upper classes, elections being held each year following the Easter recess. Active membership ceases with graduation.

The duties of the organization consist in welcoming and accommodating visiting athletic teams, recognizing services to the college, and enforcing the freshman rules. Revenue necessary to carry out this program is procured through the sale of athletic programs, Frosh caps and rules, and informals held at the gym. Since its founding, Blue Key has met with the highest recognition, due not only to the efficient completion of its special functions, but through its service to the college as a whole.

The insignia is a miniature blue pin in the likeness of a key. Members may wear a soft navy blue hat embroidered with a blue key.

The Band

The college band begins its organization every fall with its call for new membership. Everyone having any type of band instrument is encouraged to join. This year it received many exceptional additions to its membership, which greatly increased its prestige and hearty recognition by the entire college. Under the capable direction of Joseph F. Lechnyr, a well-known Burlington musician, it had a most successful season.

The band made its first good showing in the Gym on Middlebury Night, where it helped to show the Freshmen some of the spirit of the college. This year the band accompanied the team on its trips to Boston University, Williams, College, and the University of Vermont.

During Junior Week the band presents its annual concert on the steps of the chapel, and then at commencement ends its season by leading the commencement procession.

The Kaleidoscope 1935
The Glee Club is deservedly one of the most outstanding and popular organizations on the campus. Members are chosen from the best fitted candidates from all four classes of the men’s college. Intensive training is given all during the fall and winter months in preparation for the spring tours. Concerts are given each year in several states and the club is well received by its audiences. In the past Middlebury has competed in the contests sponsored by the Intercollegiate Glee Club Association of New England and has always placed high. This year, however, the contest was not held for financial reasons.

During the past season, the Glee Club has had an exceptionally full schedule. A trip to Montpelier and St. Johnsbury and to Boston in February and a tour to New York during the spring vacation were included on the schedule. On February 22 the club broadcasted over WEEI, Boston, and later by request of the National Broadcasting Company from WJZ, New York. The Club also went on the air from WOR, Boston, and WDEV, Waterbury. An interesting feature of the New York trip was the return engagement at International House, Columbia’s university home for foreign students. This engagement was also included in the 1933 schedule.

The A Tempo Club, founded in 1929, is composed of women who have shown an interest in musical activities, and who have taken one or more courses in the music department. It was founded to give its members an opportunity to accustom themselves to playing or singing before an audience.

In co-operation with the Student Government association, the A Tempo Club sponsors the justly popular Friday twilight musicales in Mead Memorial chapel. The students who take part in these recitals are those of both colleges who are sufficiently talented and interested in vocal and instrumental music.

Men's Debating

The debating schedule this season has presented two new features. The first was the non-decision debates, held the first part of the season, and the second was the Oregon System, using court-room procedure, presented in the debate with Bates College.

To make the contests as interesting as possible, topics on current political movements were discussed. On the Boston Trip the question was: Resolved, "That the Essential Features of the N. I. R. A. be Adopted as a Permanent Policy." On the New York Trip the team debated the question: Resolved, "That the Powers of the President be Increased as a Settled Policy."

Opening the season, the debaters met Bates College, October 20. Then came the Boston Trip when Keene Normal and Boston University were encountered. Tufts and Clark University were the next opponents, followed by the first decision debate, held with Boston College, February 22. Boston won a 2-1 decision. St. Michaels and the University of Puerto Rico were the last opponents before the Easter Trip. On this tour the men debated Brothers College of Drew University, New Jersey State Teacher's College, Upsala College and New York University. A successful season was concluded when the team met the University of Vermont early in April.

Women's Debating

The women's debating team opened its season with a non-decision encounter against Bates college. Among other colleges met during the year were William and Mary, the University of New Hampshire, Keene Normal school, and lastly the annual debate with the University of Vermont. Just prior to the Christmas recess the team made a several days' trip, completing engagements with New York State Teachers' College, Upsala College, and New York University.

Professor Perley C. Perkins again acted as coach. Lovina A. Foote, '34, was manager, and Avis E. Fischer, '35, served as assistant manager. The team was fortunate in having four members of last year's varsity still available, Lovina A. Foote, '34, E. Dorothy Canfield, '35, Katharine L. Kelley, '36, and Barbara T. Wishart, '36. The customary system of trial debates was used to select those who should participate in the various contests. Try-outs were Marion P. Goodale, '34, Eleanor R. Cobb, '36, Mary C. Hastings, '36, Roxanna E. Lewis, '36, Barbara W. Lilley, '36, Jean E. Douglas, '37, Elizabeth B. Knox, '37, and Marion E. Wishart, '37.

Included among the questions for discussion were: "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the British system of radio operation and control," and, "Resolved: That the N. R. A. is not a workable solution for our economic ills." The Oxford system of debating has proved very popular this year.
English Club

The English Club is an honorary society open to the juniors and seniors of both colleges who have shown an interest in literature and have received high grades in courses in English or American literature, or who have shown marked creative ability. The club founded and sponsors the Saxonian, the literary publication of the college, and promotes interest in literature in other ways.

The organization holds monthly meetings at President Paul D. Moody’s home. Faculty members, students and guests speak before the club, and the address is followed by a period for discussion.

The Mountain Club

Founded in March, 1931, the Mountain Club has developed rapidly into the most popular organization at Middlebury. Its extensive program has made the mountain campus a very real part of Middlebury life. Club activities include organized hikes, skiing, tobogganing, and ski-joring. The organization sponsored the first Middlebury Winter Carnival, February 10-12. Major features of the event were the inter-collegiate winter sports meet, with twelve colleges competing, the Carnival ball, and the skating carnival. Later in the year, an all-campus ski-jumping contest was also promoted.

Outings are scheduled at least once every two weeks, one of the most unique of these being the sugaring-off party at the Breadloaf camp. Overnight hikes are also encouraged. Membership fees entitle members to use of the club’s hiking equipment for individual outings. The club also performs the valuable function of bringing students and faculty into more intimate relationship with each other, as faculty members are eligible for membership.

This honorary dramatic society was formed for the purpose of furthering interest in drama among the students of the college. Qualifications for membership include active interest in dramatics and a certain minimum of work in the department.

Under the new constitution, new requirements for membership were adopted and the organization is now headed by a student president. The organization sponsors an annual play and a dinner dance.

Dramatics

Middlebury's comparative isolation from the stage brings into prominence its dependence on the student body for dramatic productions.

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Professor V. Spencer Goodreds, gives students the opportunity for experience in this field. The program of the club includes public performances and one-act experimental plays of which the students have practically the entire production responsibility. In all presentations, students are afforded the chance to employ their talents in scene painting, costuming, make-up, coaching, and stage participation.

Membership in the club is available to all and gives the privilege of free admission to experimental plays and reduced prices on the public performances.

The '33-'34 season was opened with the presentation, on October 25 and 26, of "Arms and the Man" by George Bernard Shaw. Shaw's subtle and inimitable satire embodied in clever lines was expertly handled by a cast, which included Sallie Flint, '35, as Catherine Petkoff; Doris Hiller, '35, as Raina Petkoff; Alice Cooke, '35, as Louka; David Munford, '36, as Captain Bluntschli; Emery Hutchins, '34, as the Officer; Charles Deedman, '36, as Nicola; Earl Gove, '36, as Major Petkoff; and Wilburt Hutton, '34, as Sergius.

On November 26 the first experimental plays, "Suppressed Desires" by George Cram Cook and Susan Glaspell, and "The Pot Boiler" by Alice Gerstenberg, were presented. The first play was a Freudian comedy centering around a woman whose suppressed desires and psychoanalytic interpretations gave her many varied ideas of life. The second was the ever-popular satire on plays and playwrights.

"Overtones" by George Cram Cook and Susan Glaspell and "Still Alarm" by George S. Kauffman, both experimental plays, were produced December 13. Both of these plays were excellently done by the small casts presenting them.

Anatole France's "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," given January 17 and 19, was the second public play of the season. This excellently staged and cleverly acted play delighted the audience with its scintillating dialogue and amusing action.

The third group of experimental plays was given March 2. "The Man Who Died at Twelve O'clock," by Paul Green, was a folk drama about the superstitions of the American negro. The second production was "The Stepmother" by Arnold Bennett, a play having a plot cleverly worked out from the human situation.

The dramatic department and Professor Goodreds staged a frolic at the Playhouse on March 19. The program included two short farces, a revival of "Common Clay" by George Cohan, and several entr'acte numbers, giving the audience ample opportunity for several hours of laughter and gaiety.

The Athletic Council

The Athletic council promotes and regulates all athletic activities in the men's college. The membership consists of the director of athletics, five faculty members, one alumnus, the president of the undergraduate association, the captains of major sports, and the captain of each minor sport in season. Varsity managers are ex-officio members.

The council determines the athletic policies of the college and supervises the use of all funds in the physical education department. All captains and managers of athletic teams are elected under its direction and must receive its approval. It is the duty of this body to award insignia to eligible members of teams and to insure the proper use of these awards. Schedules for intercollegiate sports are subject to the approval of the council and contests in the interclass and intramural athletic programs are under its jurisdiction. It also decides all questions of eligibility except those related to scholastic standing.

THE SEASON

The 1933 Panther eleven produced the most successful football season Middlebury has had in recent years. The Blue and White culminated its campaign by defeating the University of Vermont and Norwich to gain a tie with St. Michael's in the Green Mountain Conference. Although defeated in an early season game by a powerful Tufts aggregation, the splendid record of the Blue team gave Middlebury undisputed title to the New England small-college championship.

Coaches Beck and Branch developed a well drilled and spirited team built around a light but scrappy line and a fast, shifty backfield. A wide repertoire of complicated Warner maneuvers contributed to the Panther's powerful scoring machine which rolled up 101 points during the season to 45 for its opponents. Although consistently outweighed, the Blue line presented a formidable defense. The forward wall held many times within its own ten yard line and only four touchdowns were scored against it by rushing. The backs encountered some difficulty against a well organized aerial attack, but in the later season games displayed a much improved defense.

Boston University

Middlebury completely outclassed the Boston university eleven to convince a loyal but somewhat skeptical student body of its ability. The 7-0 score does not accurately indicate the margin of superiority of the Blue and White. The Panther linemen, outcharged and outplayed their opponents, and the backs displayed speed and efficiency as ball-carriers.

In the second period a sustained Middlebury offensive carried the ball to the B. U. eleven yard line. From that point Boehm scored the only touchdown of the game on an off-tackle thrust. Williams dropkicked the extra point. The Panthers were in scoring position several times in the second half, but fumbles and intercepted passes prevented them from crossing the Terrier goal line.

Williams

Journeying to Williamstown, the Panthers scored a second win over Williams. The Middmen overcame heavy odds to eke out a narrow victory against a heavier and more experienced team. A field goal in the third period by Williams provided the margin of victory. Late in the opening quarter a Middlebury offensive carried the ball to the Purple three-yard line where it rested when the period ended. The attempt to score failed but a blocked Williams punt again gave Middlebury the ball on the loser's twelve-yard stripe. The Panther backs failed to gain and an attempted field goal went wide of the mark. The half ended without either team scoring.

Coach Beck's charges uncorked a sustained offensive drive after half time which culminated in the winning field goal. With the score 3-0 against them the Purple players struggled vainly to push over a score. The Panthers played excellent defensive football and checked Williams several times when a score seemed inevitable. Williams, Panther quarterback, provided the highlight of the day with his sparkling play both offensively and defensively.

Tufts

The Tufts eleven invaded Porter field to hand Middlebury its first and only defeat of the season. The game was savagely fought but the Panthers finally succumbed in the final quarter, losing by a 20-6 count. The Jumbos drew first blood in the second period after a march from mid-field. The Blue and White retaliated after the half on a thirty-two yard run by the elusive Boehm. A fumble by the tiring Panthers and an intercepted pass gave the Bay Staters opportunities to score the winning touchdowns.

MacLean, Tufts halfback, was the most consistent ground gainer. Boehm and Williams bore the brunt of the Middlebury attack, while Riccio and Hoxie stood out in the savage line play which featured the game.

Coast Guard

The Middlebury gridmen again broke into the winning column by virtue of a 20-6 victory over a favored Coast Guard academy eleven at New London, Conn. Boehm broke loose on the first Panther play and raced fifty-five yards for a touchdown. The suddenness of the first score took the spirit out of the Cadet offensive, and, although the Guardsmen fought desperately, the Panthers were clearly superior. A forty-yard dash by Zawistoski in the second period paved the way for the second Middlebury score with Boehm crossing the goal on a sweep from the ten-yard line. A drive in the third quarter culminated in a touchdown by Zawistoski on a buck. Boehm crossed the Cadet goal on an eighty-five yard run in this period, but the play was called back on a penalty. A desperate passing attack resulted in a Coast Guard score in the final period, sparing the Cadets from a shutout.

St. Anselm’s

Middlebury found St. Anselm’s an obstacle in the path of its victory campaign but managed to eke out a 7-0 win. Despite inclement weather the game was well played and closely contested. St. Anselm’s displayed a well executed passing attack, but the Panther running attack was superior and supplied the margin of victory. The visitors dominated the play during the first half but the Blue attack gained life in the second half and a last period drive resulted in the only score of the contest.

St. Michael’s

The Middlebury Panther, opening the defense of its Conference title, battled to a scoreless tie with a tenacious St. Michael’s eleven. Play in the first half consisted chiefly of a punting duel. Late in the second period the Mikemen threatened the Panther goal but an attempted field goal failed. In the final quarter the Beckmen made a desperate attempt to score but a fourth down pass, Williams to Forbush, was grounded on the five-yard line. Kennedy, giant tackle of the Hilltoppers, and Captain Riccio were outstanding in the fierce line play.
Norwich

Displaying a consistent offense, the “Mighty Midgets” overwhelmed Norwich by a 39-6 count at Porter Field. The Cadets scored in the opening minutes on a long pass but the Panthers dominated the play for the remainder of the contest. MacLean blocked a Norwich punt and the ball settled into the arms of Hoxie who raced across the Cadet goal. Boehm and Williams both contributed touchdowns in the second period and long passes, Williams to Evans, brought two more Middlebury scores in the third quarter. The final score was made by Boehm on the last play after Williams had intercepted a Norwich pass.

Vermont

The Panther eleven terminated its season with a 19-13 triumph over the University of Vermont for Middlebury’s fifth consecutive victory over their upstate rivals. The Blue and White opened the game with a strong drive which moved down the field to a touchdown before the bewildered Vermont eleven realized that the contest had started. Zawistoski carried the ball over on a buck and Hoxie placekicked the extra point. The Catamount, however, soon came to life and tied the score. A favorable exchange of punts, several penalties against the Panthers, and successful power plays with Werner carrying the ball made possible the score.

The Beckmen scored twice in the opening minutes of the second period. A long twisting kick-off by Anderson was downed on the ten-yard line and the Green and Gold was forced to kick. A run by Boehm and two successful passes contributed three first downs and the elusive Panther halfback drove off tackle for Middlebury’s second touchdown. Following the kick-off Werner attempted a pass which was partially blocked by Hoxie and intercepted by the alert Evans who raced thirty yards for the winning score. The closing minutes saw the losers trying desperately to score by the aerial route but the Blue defense was impregnable.

1937 FROSH FOOTBALL

An exceptionally light Panther freshman eleven came through its four game campaign with the creditable record of one victory, two scoreless deadlocks, and a single defeat. Heavily outweighed in all contests, the Frosh displayed superior courage and speed against great odds. A 13-0 defeat at the hands of Montpelier Seminary was offset by the 12-7 win over Green Mountain Junior College and by scoreless ties with the Union and Vermont first year men.

Although starting the season with a squad showing little experience, Coach Nelson developed a plucky, well rounded eleven which improved rapidly as the season progressed. From a squad of twenty-six men, nineteen received class numerals. Two assistant managers also received the honors.

After two weeks' practice the team opened its season against the Union college freshmen at Schenectady. The Panther cubs showed potential strength but failed to click at crucial moments, the conflict ending without scoring. After gaining on an exchange of punts the Blue and White drove to the Union four yard marker, only to lose the ball on a poor pass from center. While not threatening offensively again, the Frosh proved their defensive strength by keeping their rivals well bottled.

Displaying a vastly improved attack, the Frosh prevailed a week later over a heavier Green Mountain Junior college aggregation 12-7 at Porter Field. While largely on the defensive in the first quarter, the Panther machine began to click in the second, initiating a fifty yard march which culminated in a touchdown by Fitzgerald. Green Mountain retaliated promptly, scoring on a pass from Cleverly to Ryan and rushing the extra point to gain the lead. The final Middlebury tally came in the last stanza, Ward taking a forward from Phinney to score after an advance of four consecutive first downs had carried to striking distance.

On October 28 the yearlings battled their traditional Vermont rivals to a scoreless deadlock in a second appearance at Porter Field. Threatening twice within the U. V. M. one yard stripe, the Panthers lacked the scoring punch to put it over. The recovery of a Burlington fumble on the Catamount 20 put the Blue and White in scoring position in the second period. However, the visitors massive forward wall proved impregnable and ended the threat. The Panther cubs launched a final drive from the forty-five yard marker in a fourth period rally which culminated on the one yard stripe. Again the Vermont stonewall defense turned the attack and the visitors punted out of danger. The Catamounts were outplayed in every department, never threatening during the encounter.

On November 4 the Frosh bowed to the powerful, undefeated Montpelier Seminary eleven 13-0 in their final game at the capitol city. The Panthers accounted for more yardage than their opponents and scored more first downs, but the Seminary boys capitalized on two intercepted Middlebury forwards. The first Montpelier touchdown came in the second quarter as Davis, rangy center, snatched a Panther pass out of the air and dashed seventy yards to score. Early in the third quarter the Montpelier center retrieved another pass, starting an aerial attack which carried to the 8 yard marker. A line buck for a touchdown and a perfect drop-kick for the additional point ended the scoring at 13-0.
The organization of the Varsity Cheer Leaders gives its greatest service to the college during the football season in leading the student body in the songs and organized cheers at the rallies and home games. During the basketball season the freshman cheer leaders have charge of the organized cheering.

A system is in effect whereby a senior, a junior, a sophomore cheer leader and two freshman tryout comprise the organization. Each year the senior member becomes the head cheer leader and is awarded a letter for his services.

The Kaleidoscope 1935
The Season

Led by Captain Sweet, the varsity basketball quintet turned in a most successful season, gaining the Green Mountain conference crown by defeating the University of Vermont, Norwich and St. Michael's. With victories over the Coast Guard and Arnold, and defeats by Union, the University club of Stamford, Conn., Massachusetts State, Brown, Northeastern, and Springfield, Middlebury's team showed a great improvement toward the latter part of the season. All contests were close and hard fought, only two defeats being by more than five point margins.

Coach Beck started the season with Captain Sweet, Clonan, Baumgartner, and Leete as experienced men about which to build his team, with the aid of several promising sophomores, Martin, Hoehn, and Davis, to round out his aggregation. As the season progressed, the development of Martin and Hoehn resulted in a well-balanced team.

Captain Sweet was the key man of the team, directing play skillfully, scoring most consistently, and playing an outstanding defensive game. Baumgartner started the year well, but a knee injury placed the burden of his forward position on the capable shoulders of Hoehn, who rapidly improved his floor-work with each game. Leete had alternate spasms of brilliance and ineffectiveness, but managed to do a full share of the scoring. Martin, a terrific worker and a speedy guard, gained the regular position alongside Captain Sweet after Davis and Barker had played the first part of the season.

UNION

The first game of the season was played on the home floor, the Maroon team coming out on top with a four point margin to win 35-31. With the count tied 11-11 at the end of the first half, the Blue and White swept into the lead but failed to maintain their advantage before the visitors' final rally. The score changed rapidly but the marksmanship and passwork of the Union-men told in the end. Leete was high man for the Panthers with twelve points.
COAST GUARD

The Beckmen opened their annual Christmas trip to take the Coast Guards into camp 50-37. The Middmen consistently cut through their opponent's defense to score. The scoring honors were divided between Clonan and Baumgartner. The attack made by the Panthers was too clean and fast for the Cadets.

STAMFORD

With Clonan leading the Blue and White team with eight points, Middlebury almost defeated the University club, but the final score showed the ex-college stars with a margin of one point. The first half ended with Middlebury at six point disadvantage. As the second half advanced, Coach Beck's basketeers released a sensational burst of speed to take the lead which see-sawed in quick succession thereafter, and the game ended with the score 35-34.

MASSACHUSETTS STATE

Led by Bush of Massachusetts State who topped the scoring column with fifteen points, Middlebury lost its third game of the season. Although State led the way throughout the contest, they were hard pressed. Sweet gained the most points for the Beckmen. When the curtain fell, State was ahead 35-31.

BROWN

The following night Middlebury lost the game with the final gun. Malkowski, stellar forward, sunk a long, one-handed shot to win the game for his team by one point, 35-34. The Bears led 17-15 at the half time after which the Blue and White forged ahead 28-20 and held its advantage until the final minute of play. Sweet and Hoehn were high scorers for the Green Mountain team.

NORTHEASTERN

Playing before the packed auditorium of the Boston Y. M. C. A., the Panthers were defeated by a fresher Northeastern quintet 34-24. The Huskies led at the half time with no trouble 19-10. This enabled Coach McCoy to use as many substitutes as he so desired during the second half. The weakened Beck attack was led by Leete and Baumgartner.

ARNOLD

The second home appearance of the basketeers seemed to change their luck. The team showed real basketball ability and turned in a decisive victory with the count of 41-23. The passing and shooting of all the members of the team was done exceptionally well, especially the work of Clonan who rung the basket for fourteen points to gain the honors for the evening.
VERMONT

Middlebury opened its conference campaign disasterously, losing to the University of Vermont 30-20 on the Catamount's floor. While the Blue forward wall failed to hit the hoop, the Burlington aggregation excelled from the start. Although the score was tied on several occasions, the Green and Gold always was able to pull away from the college five. The score at the half time stood 12-9 with the University five in the lead. Grant turned in the best performance for Vermont while Sweet led the Middmen.

NORWICH

Traveling to Northfield for its second state series tilt, the Blue and White sharpshooters gained a victory over Norwich 30-26 in an over-time contest. The opening period of the game showed that the Cadets could score almost at will. Coach Beck shifted Sweet to center and inserted Hoehn in a forward berth. This checked the Horseman threat and enabled the Panthers to stage a winning comeback. With the stands in an uproar, the score was tied by Sweet in the last second of play, 25-25. Baumgartner made good a foul throw and Martin looped a long heave through the rim to put the Blue and White out in front. Sweet cut free to sink a step shot to end the game. Baumgartner and Hoehn gained the scoring honors for Middlebury, while Washburn kept the Cadets in the running.

SPRINGFIELD

Springfield defeated the Middmen 37-32 on the latters' court by its passes and fine shooting of Collins. The Massachusetts basketeers gained a lead of 25-17 in the first half, sinking long shots from all angles. Their lead was decreased little by little until the score stood 28-28. The visitors again resumed the lead and kept it until the final gun. The scoring was evenly distributed among the Middmen.

ST. MICHAEL'S

Led by Sweet and Hoehn, the Panthers defeated St. Michael's College 41-36. The Blue and White were in the lead throughout the game; however, the contest was close and several times the Mikemen looked as if they would come out on top. The game was marked by many long shots, and by loose guarding.

ST. MICHAEL'S

Middlebury took on St. Michael's a week after their first encounter 53-30. This was the Beckmen's third conference victory and was featured by a shooting duel between Leete and Branon. The score at the half time stood 24-18 with the Panthers in the lead. As soon as the second half began, the Blue and White basketeers could not be stopped. Leete of Middlebury and Branon secured the scoring honors for the evening with seventeen and sixteen points respectively.
VERMONT

The final game of the season was played at McCullough gymnasium, the Panthers overwhelming the Catamounts 43-18. This victory gave the Middmen the Green Mountain championship held by Vermont last year. The Beckmen had scored ten points before the visitors were warmed up, but this did not last long with the incoming of Saba to the game. The half ended as Palmer of Vermont sunk a field goal to tie the score, 14-14. As the second half advanced, the Blue and White forged ahead so rapidly that they doubled their score with little trouble. Captain Sweet was high man for the evening with fifteen points, while Hoehn, Leete, and Martin followed with twelve, ten and six points respectively. This was the last college game for Captain Sweet, Anderson, Olson, and Baumgartner.

The Kaleidoscope 1935
Meeting some of the strongest competition in the East, the Middlebury hockey team completed its most successful season in some years with five victories, six defeats, and one tie. As usual, poor ice conditions severely handicapped the Panther sextet in the early season, limiting practice sessions and causing the first encounter to be played under marine conditions. Both teamwork and the passing attack improved rapidly as the season progressed and, allowing for the lack of ice on which to practice, the early record might have been much better. Victories were recorded over St. Michael’s, Colgate, Mass. State, Union, and the Lake Placid Club, while Williams, Union, Hamilton, Princeton, Brown and Army scored wins.

From a squad of thirty candidates reporting at the start of the season, Coach Nelson singled out six lettermen, Captain Dwyer, Melbye, Hickox, MacLean, M. Swett, and Brooks to bear the brunt of the competition. Bakey soon won admission to this group and the addition of Dawes, Phinney, and Foster after mid-years greatly strengthened the lineup. Two almost equally powerful forward lines were available, the first composed of Dwyer, Melbye, and Swett alternating with the line composed of Brooks, Phinney, and Dawes to maintain a fast, well rounded attack. MacLean and Bakey handled the defensive assignments with Hickox guarding the net.

Ably leading the club, Captain Dwyer consistently turned out an aggressive performance from either wing or center position. “Cy” Melbye featured his third year of varsity competition with his usual fast, heady game and in addition drilled in the lion’s share of the Panther tallies. “Cub” Swett, sophomore letterman, developed rapidly to perform yeoman service as first string center and wingman. Filling the defensive berth vacated by his versatile brother, “Chub” MacLean proved a tower of strength in the second line, making every ounce count in a particularly plucky style of play. Aside from his defensive service, he frequently pressed the attack to score.

Capably patrolling the other defensive zone, “Roge” Bakey characterized the fighting spirit of the team, violently checking innumerable enemy scoring advances. “Chow” Hickox guarded the net throughout every contest during the season, accounting for many spectacular saves and hanging up a record which will be difficult for his successor to equal. Reporting after the first semester, “Beepo” Dawes and “Doug” Phinney proved valuable offensive material and likely prospects for replacing Captain Dwyer and Melbye next season. Foster, another freshmen, Westin and Moore also saw service.
UNION COLLEGE

The season was opened against Union college at Middlebury January 6 on a rink flooded by more than an inch of water. The Maroon skaters prevailed 1-0. With the ice steadily growing worse, neither team was able to organize an effective offensive. Spectacular saves by goalie Hickox and the creditable performance of MacLean at defense featured the struggle.

Union's lone tally came in the initial canto when Jenkins slashed the puck into the net on the rebound after Hickox had made a great stop of a powerful drive from the right boards. While the remainder of the game witnessed several spirited skirmishes, the problem of lifting the puck from the soggy surface prevented further scoring. In the closing period play grew increasingly disorganized and rough.

WILLIAMS

Treking to Williamstown, the Panther pucksters went down to defeat 6-0 under even worse skating conditions than those experienced in the Union encounter. Profiting from the numerous Middlebury penalties, the strong Williams' skaters produced four of their scoring tallies in the middle period. MacLean proved outstanding for the Middmen.

HAMILTON

Pursued by a consistent hard luck jinx, the Blue and White dropped its third start on the Hamilton rink 3-0. Coach Nelson presented an altered lineup, shifting Captain Dwyer to center ice and M. Swett to the wing position. The Hamilton puck chasers drew first blood in the middle period and widened their margin in the final. Although held scoreless, the Panthers showed marked improvement over previous contests and the new combination functioned smoothly.

Breaking into the win column by swamping the St. Michael's sextet 13-0 on the home ice, the Blue unleashed a whirlwind attack to completely outplay the visitors. The Middlebury passing attack, benefiting from a week's intensive drill under favorable ice conditions, repeatedly penetrated the Purple defense to score. The ice was unusually fast and the Winooski puck chasers could do little to check the Panther speedsters. Melbye, Dwyer, MacLean, Swett, and Moore scored, Melbye leading with four counters. The visitors rarely threatened, waging a plucky though one-sided battle.

Colgate

With the addition of the freshmen Phinney and Foster at midyears, Middlebury nosed out the fast skating Colgate hockey club 4-3 on the home rink. Pressing the attack constantly into Colgate territory during the first two periods, the Panther wingmen garnered four counters before the visitors were able to organize an offensive threat.

However, Colgate rallied strongly in the final canto to penetrate the Blue and White wall in rapid succession for three tallies. The Middmen were able to check this threat and were once more on the offensive as the game closed. Melbye tallied twice and Captain Dwyer and Brooks contributed the other Middlebury scores. The lineup remained the same except that Phinney and Foster saw action.

Mass. State

Meeting Mass. State at Middlebury the Panther pucksters eked out a 4-3 win in one of the most closely contested tilts of the season. The visitors displayed a dangerous passing attack and threatened consistently from the start. Bakey and MacLean repeatedly broke up the onslaughts of the Baystaters. Phinney drove in the first goal in the opener, taking a bullet-like pass from Dawes to score.

With the fray growing faster and rougher in the second stanza, Melbye picked up a rebound and skated through the entire opposition to tally. A Mass. State wingman retaliated promptly by sizzling a hard one into the net. In the closing chapter Coach Nelson’s pupils exhibited some brilliant pass work featuring counters by Phinney and Swett. The visitors clicked again to net two more goals in the final minutes of play.

Princeton

Although bowing to Princeton 8-2, the Middlebury pucksters put up a stiffer battle than the score might indicate. With Poole, Lane, and Tiers leading the attack the Orange and Black scored three times in the initial chapter. Captain Dwyer and MacLean narrowed this margin in the second period each drilling in a tally. The Princeton bombardment then returned with renewed fury in the final period to amass a wide margin of victory.

Union College

Avenging an earlier defeat, the Blue puck chasers invaded the Union stronghold to prevail by a 3-2 score. The Panther offense clicked smoothly in the middle canto, Melbye scoring twice in rapid succession. Captain Dwyer made it 3-0, the Schenectady skaters not threatening until the final periods when they scored twice.

Alumni

The varsity sextet showed its strength by holding an all star aggregation of ex-captains to a 5-5 deadlock. Boasting such luminaries as Makela, Coach Nelson, and Crocker, the alumni swept into the lead from the start to pile up a 3-1 advantage. The under-grads staged a final period rally to knot the count with Melbye, Brooks, and Phinney starring.
LAKE PLACID CLUB

Another victory was chalked up at the expense of the Lake Placid Club 4-2. The varsity reinforced by several alumni stars outplayed the fast skating New Yorkers throughout. Flashy skating and individual brilliance featured the encounter.

BROWN UNIVERSITY

Engaging one of the strongest college teams in the country, the Panthers received a 9-4 setback at the hands of Brown University at Providence. The undefeated Bruins ran rampant in the first period to score six points and insure victory. Captain Dwyer and Melbye both tallied twice to make it 6-4 in the second canto, but the Providence skaters rallied in the closing moments, securing three counters for a considerable margin of victory.

ARMY

The Middmen closed their season rather unpropitiously by losing to Army 3-2 at West Point. The Cadets drew first blood early in the initial stanza. The Blue came back strong in the second period, however, goals by Brooks and Phinney putting them in the lead.

The West Pointers evened the count before the end of the period and drove in the deciding tally near the close of the contest. The encounter was fast and hard fought throughout and anyone's game until the final signal. The bangup performance of Brooks and Phinney indicates the solution of the replacement for next season.

THE SEASON

The 1933 baseball team won five games and lost ten, relinquishing the Green Mountain Conference title to St. Michael's.

The bulk of the pitching assignments went to Stefaniak and Barker, veteran letter men, with McDermott, Olson, and Guild also seeing service on the mound. Hoehn, a new-comer, held down the initial sack vacated by Coach Nelson. Sorenson at second, Zawistoski at short, and Yeomans and Stevenson alternating at third, comprised the rest of the infield. Captain Hartrey did most of the catching, with Ziegler as his understudy. Dumas, Williams, Guild, Bakey, Stefaniak, and Barker patrolled the gardens in various combinations.

Army, having the advantage of several weeks more practice, edged the Blue and White in the opening game of the season at West Point, April 19, by a 6-4 score. Barker allowed the Cadets seven hits and got seven strike-outs. An Army rally in the seventh inning decided the game. Journeying to East Orange, New Jersey, the Panthers defeated Upsala 4-1, the next day. Stefaniak, with Hartrey receiving, hurled a steady game, giving eleven hits, but walking none and striking out eight. Middlebury's winning margin came as the result of a three run rally in the fifth. April 21 Midd lost a slug-fest to Pratt Institute, of Brooklyn, New York. The Blue and White out-hit the home team, sixteen to ten, but the latter bunched most of their safeties in the sixth and seventh to score all of their runs for the final count of 8-5. McDermott threw them up to Hartrey. Barker and Stefaniak were the big guns in the Middlebury offensive. Concluding the trip at New Brunswick, New Jersey, Midd lost a close game to Rutgers, 10-8. Poor fielding behind Stefaniak was chiefly responsible for the set-back, as the nine out-hit their opponents for the second successive game. With the tying runs on base in the ninth, the crucial punch was lacking.

Opening the Conference series at Burlington April 29, the Blue and White were unable to get to Layden, Vermont ace, and bowed to the Catamounts, 4-0. After a disastrous first inning, in which the Green and Gold interspersed some solid bungles with Midd fielding miscues to score all of their runs, Stefaniak settled down and equalled the invincible hurling of Layden. The former allowed but five hits after the first, and two singles by Zawistoski and one by Hoehn were all that the nine could garner off the Vermont twirler. Captain Hartrey handled Stefaniak's curves.
Midd returned to the win column by handing a 7-2 defeat to Springfield May 5, the first game of the season at Porter Field. Zawistoski with three hits out of three times at bat, and Hartrey, with a homer in the sixth, led the home team’s batting attack, which netted thirteen hits. Stefaniak, on the mound for the Blue and White, allowed the Gymnasts but four hits, and was never in danger.

In a loosely played game at Winooski, May 8, the Panthers lost to St. Michael’s 9-8, for their second conference reverse. The Mikemen jumped off to an early lead, having a six-run lead going into the eighth. In this inning Barker started a rally which fell just short of a tie. Both McDermott and Stefaniak, who relieved him, were hit hard. Zawistoski, getting four out of four, was the leading Midd hitter, while a triple by Hoehn in the eighth with the bases loaded was a big factor in the futile bid for victory.

During Junior Week, the team lost again to Vermont, 3-1, and won its first game with Norwich by the one-sided score of 15-3. In the former game, Barker, stellar Midd port-sider, lost a heart breaking duel to Layden, Panther nemesis. The Catamounts gave their pitcher sensational support in the pinches, engineering a triple play in the seventh to break up a Blue and White scoring threat and save the game. Middlebury scored its lone marker in the ninth, with Vermont scoring once in the seventh and twice in the eighth. Barker, besides limiting the opposition to six scattered hits and fanning eleven, led the offensive with three out of four. Against the Maroon and Gold of Norwich, Coach Nelson’s charges found little difficulty in annexing their first conference win of the season. The visitors took an early three-run lead, but after the first Stefaniak kept them away from the rubber, while his teammates found their batting eyes and drove across fifteen runs. Included in the barrage were homers by Stevenson and Hartrey.

Venturing on their second extended trip out of the state, Midd lost 7-0 to a highly publicized Holy Cross team, May 17, at Worcester. Dumas was the only Panther to get more than one hit. Stefaniak turned in a good job on the mound, fighting against odds all the way. The Blue and White were successful in the next game, which was played against Boston University May 18, at Boston. Midd crossed the plate eight times, getting eleven hits, while Barker, never pressed, limited the Terriers to ten hits and five runs. On May 19 the nine dropped a close decision to Boston College, 5-2. Two Boston home runs ruined an otherwise fine pitching exhibition by McDermott. The team played errorless ball, but lacked the punch evident in previous games, getting only three bungles to seven for the Eagles. The trip was concluded by a 4-3 defeat at the hands of Northeastern. The game went ten innings. Northeastern was able to get to Barker for six hits, and was the victim of two fast double plays executed by the Midd infield. Sorenson tripled and singled to lead the batting offensive. Ziegler was at Captain Hartrey's usual position behind the plate.

A heavy hitting team from Tufts humbled Midd in the next-to-last game of the season, 14-5. The game was played at Porter Field. McDermott, Stefaniak, and Guild tried in vain to stem the visitors' big guns.

A capacity Commencement week crowd at Porter Field watched the nine conclude its 1933 season by downing St. Michael's conference champions, by a score of 6-4. Barker opposed Colville in the box, and earned a well deserved victory.

THE SEASON

In the opening dual meet of the season at Williamstown on April 20, it was apparent that the well-balanced Middlebury team would offer considerable resistance to opponents. Middlebury led Williams in the track events, and gained the edge in the final count, holding down the Purple advantage in the field events by virtue of a first in the broad jump taken by Cady, first in the hammerthrow by Watson, and a tie for first in the pole-vault by MacKenzie. Hoxie and MacLean led the Middlebury scorers with ten points each. MacLean won both the high and low hurdles, setting a new college record of 15.5 seconds in the former event, while Hoxie made an auspicious beginning in intercollegiate competition by winning the 440 and 880 yard dashes.

The following Saturday the Middmen made their only home appearance at Porter Field, earning a comparatively easy victory over the Montreal A. A. with a 90-45 count. Scoring eleven first places to four for their opponents, the Middlebury aggregation was never headed and produced a creditable performance for a poorly conditioned track. One college record was broken when Lovell threw the javelin 181 feet. The quarter-mile and two-mile runs were the high spots of the meet with Hoxie beating out Hughes in the home stretch to win the quarter, and Sears showed his customary last minute sprint to capture the two-mile.

On May 13, twenty-one Panther trackmen journeyed to Worcester, Massachusetts, to reach the season's peak by annexing the Eastern Intercollegiate A. A. title for the first time. The Blue and White entered the meet as a dark horse, and was favored with only outside consideration as a possible winner. Even the most optimistic Middlebury predictions did not foretell the sweeping conquest that the Panthers tallied. Scoring points in twelve of the fifteen events and capturing four individual championships, the Middmen scored 44 1/4 points for a 13 3/4 advantage over the defending champions, Rhode Island State. The individual first places were won by MacLean in the high hurdles, Prochazka in the 220, Sears in the two miles, and Cady in the broad jump. MacLean and Cady were the high scorers, the former acquiring a total of seven points by virtue of an additional third in the low hurdles, and the latter by placing second in the 100 yard dash lead with eight points.

On May 20 the Union track team was encountered at Schenectady. The Middmen were hard pressed to eke out a 68-58 triumph. Coming from behind in the last four events to overcome an early Union lead, the Panthers kept their record untarnished. A warm, windless day and a good track made for a number of outstanding performances, including a new Middlebury record of twenty-five seconds flat in the low hurdles by Mathewson. Not until after the final event of the meet, the broad-jump, was the Blue and White triumph certain. The last event saw the Panthers make a clean sweep with Cady, Jocelyn, and Captain Brown tallying in that order. There were several events in which upsets occurred, Waldron nosing out MacLean in the 120 yard high hurdles, Sullivan taking the 100 yard dash for the garnet, and Hill edging out Boehm and Hoxie in the quarter-mile run.

Closing the season on May 27, the team journeyed to Northfield to score its fifth consecutive victory and retain the Green Mountain conference championship. A dismal, cloudy day made good performances in the running events out of the question, but the competition was close as usual. Two Norwich men were the outstanding individual performers; Rowley annexed first place in both sprints, and McGuire took three firsts, in the discus, hammer and shot-put. His mark in the latter established a new conference record. In the other events, however, the well-balanced Middlebury squad proved overwhelming, and the final count was: Middlebury 68½, Norwich 41, and Vermont 25½.
Minor Sports
The 1933 Tennis Season

The tennis team completed a successful season under Coach Cornwall, winning four matches, losing two, and tying one. The Panthers opened the season with a trip to New York state where they won their first match at Troy, defeating R. P. I., 5-4. The following day the team journeyed to Schenectady and suffered defeat at the hands of a strong Union team, 7-2. Captain Allen's victory in the singles and Allen's and Flagg's victory in the doubles saved the Panthers from a complete shutout.

In their first home stand, the netmen entertained B. U., U. V. M., and St. Michaels as part of the Junior Week festivities. B. U. was defeated, 5-4; an undefeated Catamount team was held to a 3-3 tie, while St. Michaels was shut out 9-0.

For the final match of the year the team journeyed to Burlington, where the Vermonters avenged the tie earlier in the season by defeating the Blue and White, 4-1.

Handicapped by having only two veterans, Captain Riccio and Pickens, the golf team began its 1933 season with a trip to Amherst, Massachusetts, for a match with Amherst. Both teams showed lack of practice, Middlebury being particularly handicapped. Although Captain Riccio was low-scorer with a 77, the Panthers were defeated 4-2.

On May 1 the Blue and White met the little-known Union team on the Middlebury course. The Midd-men easily defeated their opponents with a 6-0 score. The Middlebury men were all in excellent form, Leete starring with a 71 for the course.

The next match was played with Norwich at the Montpelier Country Club. The Panthers scored a victory of 6-0 over the cadets. Captain Riccio and Leete were the outstanding performers. For the last match of the season, Middlebury travelled to Hanover to oppose Dartmouth on the tricky Hanover Country Club course.

Varsity Cross-Country

The Middlebury Varsity Cross Country Team completed a successful season with the record of three wins and two defeats to defend its state title.

Journeying to Schenectady for the opening encounter, the Panther harriers were defeated 19-36. The following week a fast Williams team nosed out the Blue and White 26-29. Gregory of the Purple finished first, closely followed by Captain Sears of Middlebury.

Breaking into the win column, Coach Brown’s charges decisively outran the Hamilton harriers by the perfect score of 15-40 at Clinton. Running over a snow covered course, five Panthers, Sears, White, Seymour, Meacham, and Gross, crossed the finish line hand in hand to score a quintuple tie for first.

In the final meet with U. V. M., Middlebury again triumphed by a 17-38 margin to capture the Green Mountain Conference title. Meacham, Sears, and White finished first, second and third respectively. The victory concluded a successful season.

The 1937 harriers decisively defeated the U. V. M. first year men 22-33 on the Burlington course to retain the state title for Middlebury. MacFayden and Brooker displayed fine form to tie for first place in the fast time of 15:52 over the three and a half mile stretch. Dargnaeut of Vermont crossed the line third, closely followed by Wordsworth and Hard of the Panther cubs. McIntyre, Waite, Kennedy, and Bellmore of U. V. M. finished in the order named, with Jackman running tenth for Middlebury. The race was the yearlings' only encounter.

Interest and enthusiasm was shown in Winter Sports this year; the sport was encouraged and better organized. Middlebury participated in four meets, netting two second places and a third place.

The Green Mountain Conference meet, held at Northfield, was taken by Norwich with 31 points. Middlebury and Vermont garnered twelve and four points respectively. In the I. W. S. U. championship meet at Hanover, the Blue and White gained valuable experience, although not placing. The third meet was held at Middlebury under the auspices of the Mountain club as a part of the Winter Carnival. Dartmouth was outstanding, piling up 37 points, while Middlebury gained 6 ½. Maine 5, Vermont 1, Harvard 1, and Norwich ½. Competing in the final meet at Winooski, the Panthers were nosed out by Dartmouth and Norwich. The scores by teams were: Dartmouth 18, Norwich 14, Middlebury 11, Vermont 1, and St. Michael’s 1.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association is the organization which has charge of sports for the Women's College. Its members are all the women who take an active interest in, or participate in athletic events. It sponsors a hockey tournament in the fall, basketball and volleyball tournaments in the winter, and archery, tennis, and baseball tournaments during the spring months. In addition to these tournament sports, it helps to create an interest in riding and badminton.

This year it sponsored a winter sports meet with the women of Vermont, McGill and Skidmore as part of the Winter carnival. Later in the year there was a sister-class meet for indoor sports with the women of the University of Vermont.

To further the interest in athletics, the association awards numerals to championship class teams; "MC" monograms to those selected as the All-Midd teams; and "M" sweaters to the women who have earned 1,000 points for excellence in athletics during their college careers.
Hockey

Within the past few years there has been an increased enthusiasm for field hockey at Middlebury and the sport is rapidly becoming one of the most popular fall athletic activities. Since last year's senior victors were graduated in June, competition for this year's championship was more intense than ever. Favored with much better weather conditions than in the previous year, a large number of scheduled games were played under the direction of Dorothy Wilson, '34, head of hockey. The conclusion of the season witnessed the hard-fighting junior team well in the lead by virtue of four games won and only one lost. Next in rank were the plucky sophomores, who won one game, lost one, and tied two.

At the end of the season the annual gala bonfire was held on the field. An exciting, somewhat hectic game with the men of Delta Kappa Epsilon furnished the major part of the entertainment. Class numerals were awarded to the championship junior team. The announcement of those who were chosen for the All-Midd hockey team was made at this time. Selection was based on outstanding ability, good sportsmanship, and faithfulness in adhering to training rules.

The 1933-34 season of Volleyball under the management of Lovina A. Foote, '34, was an unusually successful one.

Previous to the Christmas vacation practice sessions were held and after the recess the usual two-round schedule of interclass games was played off. A large number of girls participated and competition was very intense for the championship. The enthusiastic second teams also had keen rivalry, but the sophomores finally won the majority of victories. At the end of the season the juniors emerged victorious after hard-fought games, their nearest rivals being the plucky seniors. The juniors well deserved four places on the All-Midd team, selected from those who show signal ability in the sport.

Baseball

Again last spring the upper class players proved themselves supreme in baseball. For two years the class of '34 had held the coveted title of champion. Then last year, because the baseball season was unusually late and therefore did not attract as many players as it had previously, the class of '34 joined with the seniors to form one strong, upper class team. It was this team which proved its athletic ability by winning the championship.

Dorothy Major, '34 was in charge of the season, and under her direction two sets of games were scheduled. These were played, however, rather hurriedly and irregularly, for weather conditions were often unfavorable, and the games were held too late in the season to attract as much interest as the other sports. For this reason no All-Midd team was chosen.

Although the veteran junior-senior team showed itself distinctly superior to the other teams, the freshman and sophomores are to be commended for good playing and a fine competitive spirit. They show good promise for the future.

Basketball

Basketball has long proven one of the most popular indoor sports at Middlebury and this year witnessed the usual large number of girls participating. Two rounds were scheduled, under the direction of Faith Arnold, '35, but it was not necessary to play all the games in the second round since the juniors had a firm grasp on the championship before the series was completed. They had the distinction of winning every game which they played. The second teams also had a number of spirited contests.

From the four first teams the All-Midd sextette was selected chosen for their faithfulness in training, natural ability, and good sportsmanship.

The Kaleidoscope 1935
Highlights of the Social Season

The season of formals was introduced to Middlebury society Thanksgiving Eve by the annual Soph Hop held at the Inn. Edwin A. Howard, '36, was in charge. Two o'clock dances are scarce and always popular, and it was with great pleasure that all those present enjoyed the music of the Lord Jeff Serenaders until the wee small hours.

Directly after the strain and stress of exam week the ancient order of Scullions held forth in grand style amid the snow covered pines that suddenly sprang up in Hepburn Social Hall. Douglass L. Jocelyn, '34, was in charge of this rare specimen, a dinner dance, and fortunate were the present and past waiters who alone enjoyed the music of the Black Panthers.

The Freshmen started their social career in Middlebury with a bang, by breaking through custom and electing co-chairmen, George D. Phinney, '37, and Janet Gray, '37, to handle their Frolic, which was held February 3 at the Inn. The popular dutch date system enabled a large number of couples to enjoy the music of Pete Demico and his band.

Then, February 10 came the Winter Carnival Ball, a colorful part of the first Winter Carnival ever to be held in Middlebury. McClough gym was attractively decorated with fraternity banners under the direction of Curtis B. Hickox, '34. At intermission, by a plurality vote, Philip G. Mathewson, '34 and Dorothy Gray, '35, were elected King and Queen of the Carnival. Larry Pierce of Montpelier provided the music for this "big moment" of the social season.

The annual Ladies-In-Waiting Ball was given by the college waitresses under the direction of Rosemary Faris, '34, February 24. Not to be outdone by the Scullions, this also was a dinner dance, dinner being served in the Grange Hall followed by dancing in the Masonic Hall. The Black Panthers were an indispensable part of the program.

When the Litterati get together the result is not another publication, but a Ball. This year March 3 was the time, the Inn the place, and Bob Minotti and his band from Burlington the inspiration. Robert L. Cushing, '34, headed the committee.

A revival of the Wig and Pen formal was staged at the Inn February 24. Bill Dehey and His Merry Makers from Pittsfield played a return request engagement, much to the gratification of everyone. Colorful lights and stage-sets gave a distinctive note to the whole performance which was under the supervision of Barbara L. West, '34.

The only costume dance of the year, the Spanish Carnival, was held at the Masonic Hall, March 16. Bob Minotti of Burlington furnished the tangos. The committee in charge was headed by Dorothy C. Smith, '34.
Acknowledgment

The editors wish to acknowledge their debt to all those who by their assistance and willing cooperation have made this book possible. We wish particularly to thank Dean Burt A. Hazeltine, for his advice on financial problems, Mr. W. Storrs Lee, for help and suggestions on editorial matters, Mr. Kirkland Sloper, Mr. Ralph Dumas, Mr. Thomas Noonan, Mr. James Fish, for valuable suggestions concerning the publishing of a year-book, and also, the staffs of the Warren Kay Vantine Studio, the Bickford Engraving and Electrotyping Co., and of The Tuttle Company, without whose technical assistance the book could not have been.

A CRITICISM —

In a recent ad we invited constructive criticism of our store and service. Here is one suggestion we were glad to receive. "When you advertise in a program, school paper or year book don't utilize the space for just your name. Tell the reader something about your merchandise—these ads are read." We thanked the gentleman and will certainly follow his suggestion in the future.
